

of the suit in Chancery, any surplus shall remain in the hands of the said trustee, such sum of money shall by an order of the said court granting the decree, be paid over to the trustee of the said lunatic or person non compos mentis, or deposited in such Bank as the court shall direct, and subject to the order of the court for the benefit of the said lunatic or person non compos mentis.

Which was read."

Mr. Ely moved that the said bill with the proposed amendment be laid on the table and that the amendment be printed.

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Blakistone submitted the following message, which was read and assented to.

By the House of Delegates,
January 11th, 1834.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with your concurrence the appointment of a joint committee of the two houses upon so much of the Governor's message as relates to the controversy between this state and the commonwealth of Virginia, in regard to the southern and western boundary of this state, and that they report to the two houses respectively the course they deem most expedient for the state to pursue. We have appointed on the part of this house, Messrs. Blakistone, Franklin Smith, Jones of Somerset, Knight and Palmer, to join such gentlemen as shall be named by your honorable body.

By order,

Louis Gassaway, Cl'k.

Mr. Jones of Somerset, submitted the following order;

Ordered, That for the purpose of affording time to the standing and special committees to prepare their business for the action of the House, that this House will, until otherwise ordered, meet every morning at 11 o'clock, instead of ten, as heretofore ordered;

Which, having been twice read—The question was put, "Will the house adopt the order;"

Resolved in the affirmative.

The House then adjourned until Monday morning, 11 o'clock.